ALAMEDA ALLIANCE FOR HEALTH ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBER

Tosan O. Boyo was appointed to the Alameda County Hospital Seat.

Alameda, CA – Alameda Alliance for Health (Alliance), the local health plan that administers access to health services for over 400,000 Alameda County residents, announced today that Mr. Tosan Boyo has been appointed to the Alliance Board of Governors. The board is the governing body of the Alliance and consists of 19 board members who represent specific stakeholder groups including physicians, community health clinics, local safety net agencies, and Alliance consumers.

“As a long-time health care leader dedicated to eliminating health disparities, Mr. Boyo will provide a valuable perspective to our Board of Governors,” said Matthew Woodruff, Alliance CEO. “I am confident that he will help the Alliance move our mission and vision forward to achieve optimal health and well-being for our members and larger community.”

Mr. Boyo is President of Sutter Health’s East Bay Market and oversees 6 Hospitals, 15 Ambulatory Centers and 4 Surgery Centers with 10,000 staff and physicians that provide care to 500,000 patients across Alameda, Contra Costa and Solano Counties.

Mr. Boyo previously served as the Chief Operating Officer of San Francisco General Hospital (SFGH) – the City’s only Level 1 Trauma Center, Psychiatric Emergency Center and largest Primary Care Center. During the pandemic, he served as the Chief of Operations for the City’s COVID-19 Command Center. Prior to his roles at SFGH, Mr. Boyo led the Ambulatory Network of San Mateo Medical Center. Mr. Boyo is a Board-Certified Fellow in Healthcare Management and was the first graduate of Montclair’s Master of Public Health Program.

“I am deeply honored to join the Alameda Alliance Board of Governors. This appointment provides a unique opportunity to improve patient access and eliminate health disparities within Alameda County. I’m looking forward to serving and addressing the needs of the most diverse county in the U.S.” said Mr. Boyo, newly appointed Alliance Board Member.
