ALAMEDA ALLIANCE FOR HEALTH ANNOUNCES NEW CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Beau Hennemann, a health care leader with over 20 years of experience working with community-based and Medicaid programs joins the Alliance executive team as the new Chief Operating Officer

Alameda, CA - Alameda Alliance for Health (Alliance), the local health plan that provides comprehensive health care coverage to nearly 370,000 Alameda County residents is happy to announce that Mr. Beau Hennemann will assume the role of Chief Operating Officer for the Alliance, effective June 22nd. In this role, Mr. Hennemann will report to the organization's Chief Executive Officer and will be responsible for oversight and day-to-day operations of several Alliance departments, including Member Services, Claims, Provider Services, Grievance & Appeals, Credentialing, Communications, Community Outreach, Behavioral Health and Long-Term Care Operations, Medicare Operations, Facilities, and the Project Management Office.

"Beau brings extensive experience in Medi-Cal and a deep understanding of the populations that the Alliance serves," said Alliance CEO Matthew Woodruff. "I feel confident that his leadership and commitment to our mission and vision will strengthen and improve our ability to better serve our members."

Mr. Hennemann has spent the last 10 years at Elevance Health (Anthem Blue Cross), where he held a series of leadership positions supporting Medi-Cal and Medicaid programs across California and the western United States. He provided strategic oversight for initiatives supporting the physical, behavioral, and social needs of Medicaid members, including implementation of California's CalAIM initiative, and provided leadership for Medicaid contract transitions. Most recently, he supported the development of a unified Quality Management infrastructure across multiple State Medicaid Plans. He has been recognized for building high-performing teams, fostering collaboration, and delivering measurable improvements in quality, compliance, and operational performance.

"I am honored to join the Alliance and take on this critical role that serve's Alameda County's most vulnerable families, seniors and children," said Mr. Hennemann. "While I recognize this is a challenging time for Medi-Cal and the entire safety net system, I am committed to working collaboratively to create solutions that will ensure access to care for the people that we serve."

About Alameda Alliance for Health

Alameda Alliance for Health (Alliance) is a local, public, not-for-profit managed care health plan committed to making high-quality health care services accessible and affordable to Alameda County residents. Established in 1996, the Alliance was created by and for Alameda County residents. The Alliance Board of Governors, leadership staff, and provider network reflect the county's cultural and linguistic diversity. The Alliance provides health care coverage to nearly 370,000 children and adults with limited resources through our National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) accredited Alliance Group Care and Alliance Medi-Cal programs. Beginning in January 2026, the Alliance began serving residents who are dually eligible for Medicare and Medi-Cal through their Alliance Wellness, Dual Eligible Special Needs Plan (D-SNP).
